The Names of Yahueh and Yahushua

The Names of Yahueh and Yahushua are very important. They are the Names of our Heavenly Father and His Son, Who together created heaven and earth.

Bereshith aka (also known as) Genesis 1:26 says

"And Elohim said, "Let Us make man in Our image, according to Our likeness, …"

Ephesians 3:8-9 says

8 "To me, the very least of all the set-apart ones, this favour was given, to bring the Good News of the unsearchable riches of Messiah among the gentiles,
9 and to make all see how this secret is administered, which for ages past has been hidden in Elohim who created all through Yahushua Messiah," Elohim is a Hebrew word that means Mighty Ones. Note that it is plural! Elohim can refer to Yahueh, as in this case, or to angels, false gods like idols, mighty men like Mosheh, who was an elohim to Pharoah, and to judges.

Judges like Othniel son of Qenaz, Kaleb's (aka Caleb) younger brother, Gidon aka Gideon, and Shimshon aka Samson were mighty men. Othniel son of Qenaz is written about in Shoftim aka Shophetim and Judges 3:9-11. Shimshon's story is in Shoftim aka Shophetim and Judges 13:1-16:31. Gidon's story is in Shoftim aka Shophetim and Judges 6:11-8:35.

All scriptures quoted in this article are from The Scriptures, published by Institute for Scripture Research (ISR).

Mishle aka Proverbs 30:4 says

"Who has gone up to the heavens and come down?
Who has gathered the wind in His fists?
Who has bound the waters in a garment?
Who established all the ends of the earth?
What is His Name, and what is His Son’s Name, if you know it?"

Yes, I know it! Do you? His Name is Yahueh and His Son's Name is Yahushua!

Yahueh's Name in Paleo Hebrew is:

Paleo means ancient.

Yahueh's Name in Modern Hebrew is:

יהוה

Yahushua's Name in Paleo Hebrew is:

Yahushua's Name in short form in Modern Hebrew is:

יהושע

Yahushua's Name in long form in Modern Hebrew is:

יהושוע

Yahueh and Yahushua are the Names by which we're saved!

Yahuel aka Yoel and Joel 3:32 says

"And it shall be that everyone who calls on the Name of YHWH shall be delivered."

Ma'asei Hashelichim aka Acts of the Apostles 2:21 repeats this saying,

"And it shall be that everyone who calls on the Name of YHWH shall be saved."

YHWH is the English transliteration of the Hebrew letters Yud Heh Uau Heh, which is how Yahueh's Name is written in Hebrew. A transliteration is when you represent one language's letters by another language's letters.

Most Christian scriptures put "name of the Lord" in there, instead of the Name of Yahueh, which then begs the question, well what is the name of the Lord? How can I call on His Name if I don't know what His Name is? How then can I be saved? The reader is left hanging because most Christian scriptures have taken out all occurrences of the Name of Yahueh. This is a breach of the third commandment which says, in Shemoth aka Exodus 20:7,

"You do not bring the Name of YHWH your Elohim to naught, for YHWH does not leave the one unpunished who brings His Name to naught."

At the burning bush, Mosheh (aka Moses) asked Yahueh what His Name was. Shemoth aka Exodus 3:15 says

"And Elohim said further to Mosheh, "Thus you are to say to the children of Yisrael, YHWH Elohim of your fathers, the Elohim of Abraham, the Elohim of Yitshaq, and the Elohim of Yaaqob, has sent me to you. This is My Name forever, and this is My remembrance to all generations."

Yahueh wants all generations to remember His Name and to call on His Name to be saved.

The apostles Shaul and Sila (aka Paul and Silas) were asked by someone what he had to do to be saved.

Ma'asei Hashelichim aka Acts 16:31 says

"And they said, "Believe on the Master Yahushua Messiah, and you shall be saved, you and your household.""

Romans 10:9 says

"That if you confess with your mouth the Master Yahushua and believe in your heart that Elohim has raised Him from the dead, you shall be saved."

Romans 6:23 says

"For the wages of sin is death, but the favourable gift of Elohim is everlasting life in Messiah Yahushua our Master."

Wages are what we earn. It is the consequence of our actions. If we sin, and all men and women, with the exception of Yahushua, have sinned, then we earn the death penalty. Death is the consequence of our sin.

The good news is that if we believe in the Messiah Yahushua, our Master, the Passover Lamb of Yahueh who takes away the sin of the world, our sins are forgiven and Yahueh's judgment passes over us and we are no longer judged guilty. Halleluyah!

Yahuhanan aka Yohanan and John 1:29-36 says

29 "On the next day Yahuhanan saw Yahushua coming toward him, and said, "See, the Lamb of Elohim who takes away the sin of the world!"
30 "This is He of whom I said, "After me comes a Man who has become before me, for He was before me."
31 "And I did not know Him, but that He might be revealed to Yisrael, therefore I came immersing in water."
32 And Yahuhanan bore witness, saying, "I have seen the Spirit coming down from heaven like a dove and remain on Him.
33 And I did not know Him, but He who sent me to immerse in water said to me, "Upon whom you see the Spirit coming down and remaining on Him, this is He who immerses in the Set-apart Spirit."

34 And I have seen and have witnessed that this is the Son of Elohim."
35 Again the following day, Yahuhanan was standing with two of his taught ones,
36 and looking at Yahushua walking, he said, "See the Lamb of Elohim!""

1 Corinthians 5:7 says

"… For also Messiah our Passover was offered for us."

There is saving and everlasting life in Yahushua! Halleluyah!

The Name of Yahueh

The Hebrew Tanakh aka Hebrew Old Testament writes Yahueh's Name as the Hebrew letters Yud Heh Uau Heh, which are called the Tetragrammaton. The Uau is more commonly called a Vav or a Waw. It gives a u sound so I call it Uau, which is what some Paleo Hebrew scholars call it. The first three letters of Yahueh's Name are Yud Heh Uau and these letters are called the Trigrammaton. The Trigrammaton appears in many names, like Eliyahu aka Elijah and Yeshayahu aka Isaiah. Eliyahu means Yahueh is my El. El means might or strength or elohim, which means Mighty Ones. Obviously, we can see that Yahu is a short form of Yahueh, as is Yah.

The ending of Yahueh's Name is where differences of opinion come in. We get no help from Judaism because their teachings instruct their followers to mask or hide the Name of Yahueh so that the gentiles don't profane His Name. As a result, the Masorete scribes vowel pointed Yahueh's Name in different ways. The most common way was to put the vowel points for e, o, and a in Yahueh's Name which gave the name Yehovah, which became Jehovah in English. E, o and a were put in so the reader would read elohim adonai instead of Yahueh. There is no such name in Hebrew as Yehovah, even though a lot of Hebrew speakers say that name. Ironically, since most followers of Judaism no longer mention Yahueh's Name, they no longer know that Yahueh is the Name of the Creator and they say that Yahueh is a desert demon, which is blasphemy, so they've ended up profaning Yahueh's Name themselves when their goal was to stop gentiles profaning Yahueh's Name! To determine the correct ending of Yahueh's Name we need to look at how His Name is derived.

Yahueh's Name is derived from three Paleo Hebrew words: hayah, hu, and hauah (which is also written as hawah or havah).

Hayah and hauah both have the same meaning - to be, to exist. They are primitive root verbs. Hu means he, she, or it. It is a primitive pronoun.

If you conjugate hauah, you get a ueh ending in all its singular present tense forms.

Conjugate means to recite or display all or some subsets of the various forms of a verb, in a fixed order. For example, one conjugates the present tense of the verb "be" as "I am, you are, he/she is, we are, you are, they are".

1st person: eh-ueh (I exist/I am)
2nd person: tih-ueh (You exist/You are)
3rd person: yih-ueh (He exists/He is)

Yahueh introduced His Name to Mosheh aka Moses by saying "I am who I am" in Shemoth aka Exodus 3:14. According to Hebrew scholars, Yahueh's Name is in the third person, which means Yahueh's Name means "He is who He is". Hu means he, she or it, so this can be easily confirmed. This makes perfect sense, as Yahueh said "I am" and we say "He is". Obviously, "am", "are" and "is" are conjugations of the English verb "be". In Hebrew, hauah is also conjugated in Yahueh's Name. You will note the ueh ending in both first person and third person forms so there's no room for ambiguity on the ending of Yahueh's Name. Yahueh's Name ends in "ueh"! There is no other sensible alternative option!

hayah hu hauah → Yah hu ueh → Yahueh

The Creator's Name is Yahueh, pronounced Yah - u – ay. Yah as in halleluyah, u as in blue and ay as in day. In Hebrew, as well as in English, eh is pronounced as ay as in day. This can be seen in names like Mosheh aka Moses and Menashsheh.

One objection to the Name of Yahueh that I've come across is that they say Yahueh is a name, names are pronouns, and pronouns aren't conjugated. Let's look at the name Yehu aka Jehu, who was an Israelite prophet, living during the time of King Ba'asha of Israel. No one questions whether Yehu is a real name. Yehu is derived from two Paleo Hebrew words: hayah and hu.

If you conjugate hayah, you get yeh in all its singular present tense forms.

1st person: eh-yeh (I exist/I am)
2nd person: tih-yeh (You exist/You are) 3rd person: yih-yeh (He exists/He is)

hayah hu → yeh hu → Yehu

We can clearly see that the name Yehu contains a conjugated form of hayah. This means that names derived from verbs may, in fact, be conjugated.

Hayah is Strong's Concordance word number 1961.

Strong's Concordance

hayah: to fall out, come to pass, become, be

Original Word: הָיָה

Part of Speech: Verb

Transliteration: hayah

Phonetic Spelling: (haw-yaw)

Definition: to fall out, come to pass, become, be

Strong's Exhaustive Concordance

become, altogether, accomplished, committed, like, break, cause,

A primitive root (compare hava'); to exist, i.e. Be or become, come to pass (always emphatic, and not a mere copula or auxiliary) -- beacon, X altogether, be(-come), accomplished, committed, like), break, cause, come (to pass), do, faint, fall, + follow, happen, X have, last, pertain, quit (one-)self, require, X use.

Hu is Strong's Concordance word number 1931.

Strong's Concordance

hu or hi: he, she, it

Original Word: הוּא

Part of Speech: pronoun 3rd person singular

Transliteration: hu or hi

Phonetic Spelling: (hoo)

Definition: he, she, it

Hauah (havah) is Strong's Concordance word number 1933.

Strong's Exhaustive Concordance

to breathe; to be

Or havah {haw-vaw'}; a primitive root (compare 'avah, hayah) supposed to mean properly, to breathe; to be (in the sense of existence) -- be, X have.

see HEBREW 'avah

see HEBREW hayah

There is a beautiful Hebrew song called "Adon Olam". The second verse is

U'acharey kichlot hakol,	And after all is concluded
l'vado yimloch nora.	The awesome One alone will reign
U'hu hayah, u'hu houeh,	And it is He who was, and He who is
U'hu yih'yeh b'tif arah.	And it is He who shall be in splendour

You can clearly see Yahueh's Name in the third line of this verse. I've put it in bold and underlined it to make Yahueh's Name easier for you to see.

The Name of Yahushua

The Messiah's Name is Yahushua! Yahushua means Yahueh's deliverance or Yahueh saves. The prophet Zekaryah aka Zechariah prophesied that Yahushua would be the Name of the Messiah, so Gabriel, the heavenly messenger, would have told Miriam aka Mary, who became the Messiah's mother, to name Him Yahushua. In Zekaryah aka Zechariah 6:9-12, the high priest's name was Yahushua and Zekaryah was told to say to him

"Thus said YHWH of hosts, saying, See the man whose name is the Branch!"

The Messiah is called the Branch of Yissai aka Jesse in prophecies. Some English scriptures transliterate Yahushua as Yehoshua but there is no such Hebrew name as Yehoshua, even though some Hebrew speakers have been named Yehoshua. It is a corruption of the name of Yahushua, using Masoretic vowel points to hide the Name of Yahu, a short form of Yahueh's Name. There is also no such Hebrew name as Yahoshua. The English name Joshua came from Yehoshua.

The first English scriptures have Yahushua's Name written as Iesus, which is the same as the Latin. Iesus is derived from Yeshua. The letter J then entered the English language, so the Messiah was called Jesus. The J in Jesus was first pronounced as a Y as the Germans do. The English then started pronouncing Js more like the French and so it's now pronounced as Gee, giving Gee zuz, which is not recognisable as Yahushua. In Latin, sus means swine, so it's a rather unfortunate transliteration of the Name of the Yahudi Messiah Yahushua!

In Hebrew, Yahushua is written Yud Heh Uau Shin Ayin most of the time. The Messiah has exactly the same name as Yahushua son of Nun. Twice in the Tanakh, shown below and on the next page, Yahushua son of Nun's name is written in the long form as Yud Heh Uau Shin Uau Ayin. The ending is Shin Uau Ayin, giving shua. Yahushua is pronounced as Yah as in halleluyah, u as in blue, shua as in Joshua. In the Masoretic Tanakh, the short form of Yahushua's name has a vowel pointing on the Shin which adds a Uau (Vav) to the Shin, giving shu and the following Ayin makes the ending shua! The Shin has three dots in a diagonal line. This is a vowel point called a Qibbuts or Kubbutz. It gives a "u" as in blue sound.

Most of the Tanakh was written in Paleo Hebrew. Hebrew is read from right to left, so Yud is the rightmost letter in Yahushua's name.

Debarim aka Deuteronomy 3:21 shows the long form of Yahushua's name – Yud Heh Uau Shin Uau Ayin. This is the Paleo Hebrew text:

Here it is again in the Masoretic text (Modern Hebrew):

Shoftim aka Judges 2:7 also has the long form of Yahushua's name, as well as the shorter form of his name. This is the Paleo Hebrew text:

Here it is again, in the Masoretic text (Modern Hebrew):

You can clearly see the three diagonal dots of the Qibbuts vowel point on the Shin, which looks like a W, the second letter from the left, on the shorter form of Yahushua's name, in the upper left. The Dead Sea Scrolls also have the long form of Yahushua's name in Yahushua aka Joshua 6:7 and Yahushua aka Joshua 8:3.

A lot of people are calling Yahushua "Yahusha". There is no such Hebrew name as Yahusha! There are four witnesses in the scriptures that show this form to be wrong – six witnesses if you count the Dead Sea Scrolls. Twice Yahushua is written in the long form Yud Heh Uau Shin Uau Ayin, which clearly ends with shua. The third witness is the Masoretic vowel pointing which gives a Uau after the Shin, resulting in a shua ending. The fourth witness is the Aramaic name Yeshua which has a shua ending. Yeshua means deliverance. Yeshua is written in Aramaic as Yud Shin Uau Ayin. The high priest in Zekaryah's time was called Yahushua. In the book of Ezra, which was written in Aramaic, the high priest Yahushua's name was given as Yeshua.

The archangel Mikael is my fifth witness, or seventh if you count the Dead Sea Scrolls, that there is no such Hebrew name as Yahusha!

An encounter with Mikael, the archangel

I was blessed to have an encounter with Mikael, the archangel, (who is also known as Michael), one day and I asked him if Yahueh and Yahushua are the correct pronunciations of the Names of the Father and His Son and he confirmed that they were. Mikael also said that there were no such Hebrew names as Yehovah, Yahuah, Yehoshua, Yahoshua, and Yahusha, when I asked him about those names.

Unfortunately most memes online are proclaiming Yahuah and Yeshua or Yahusha instead of Yahueh and Yahushua. Mikael told me that I should write to those who are proclaiming the names of Yahuah and Yahusha. This article is the result.

One day previous to this, I was extremely tired and was forced to go on a one hour journey when all I wanted to do was go to sleep. I felt that I would be under a spiritual attack so I asked Yahueh to send Mikael to fight for me. I called on the Name of Yahueh the whole way. I did indeed get attacked by an unclean spirit. I asked Mikael about that night and he told me that he fought a legion of demons for an hour. I asked about the unclean spirit that attacked me and he said that he let a little demon through because he thought that I could handle it! I'm very grateful that he fought for me and that he took out a legion of demons for me!

Some people think Mikael just defends the land of Israel, so I asked him about this and he said that he also defends the sons of the children of Israel. Earlier Mikael said that I was "a true son of David" when I said that Yahueh would have to restore me. I have been told that I'm a descendant of King David through my male lineage and Mikael's words confirmed that. I also asked Mikael if my tribe was called Yahudah or Yehudah, which is what Jews call it. Mikael replied that it was Yahudah, which is what I've been calling my tribe.

I asked Mikael how tall he was and he said "1000 cubits" which confirmed what I had thought. A thousand cubits is 1500 feet!

I also asked Mikael how long it took him to get from one place to another and he said that as soon as Yahueh commands him to go somewhere, he's there!

Mikael told me other very interesting things which I won't go into here.

Mikael is indeed a very mighty warrior of Yahueh!

A conversation with a warlock

A few years ago, I was victorious over a warlock, even though I didn't know at the time I was up against a warlock, because I bound the evil spirit that was causing trouble, in the Name of Yahushua, and commanded it to go to the place Yahueh appoints. Yahueh and Yahushua gave me the victory! A warlock is a man who practices sorcery or witchcraft. I met the warlock about one and a half weeks later and I questioned him and he admitted that he was the one who caused the problems. He thought his wickedness was great fun.

The warlock was a very successful man who was the chairman of a large well-known multi-national company. When I met him, I instantly sensed he was a warlock so I asked him if he was a warlock and he said "How did you know?" He told me "We're more powerful than Jesus and Yeshua". I then told him "You're not as powerful as Yahueh and Yahushua". He replied "We know that". I asked him whose power he was using, thinking he might be invoking an evil spirit. He said "the devil's power".

If you want to be a spiritual warrior or a prayer warrior you need to bind evil spirits or demons in the Name of Yahushua and command them to go to the place Yahueh appoints. They are the only Names to call on when confronting the devil to be victorious over him. I know for a fact, that people have cast out demons in the name of Jesus. However, I would only confront spirits of darkness in the Name of Yahushua as that is our Saviour's real Name and there is power in His Name.

Another interesting thing the warlock told me was that the devil was on the throne in heaven! Of course, I knew that was a deception and a lie and that Yahueh is on the throne in heaven and Yahushua is seated at His right hand. I was curious to know where the warlock thought heaven was, so I asked him "Where's heaven?" He said "the Vatican!" I laughed at that and asked him "Is the Vatican paved with gold?" knowing full well that it isn't. He replied "No" to which I said "The scriptures say that heaven is paved with gold". I told him that the devil is a liar and a deceiver. I also told him that the Vatican was built using money raised from selling "indulgences". An "indulgence" was sold to someone by a Catholic priest if they wanted to commit a sin and be forgiven of it. For example, if someone wanted to commit adultery or fornication they would pay the priest some money and they would indulge in that sin and the Catholic Church would "forgive" the person of their sin. The Vatican was built on sin and is certainly not heaven, the home of our righteous Creator, Yahueh. I watched a Youtube video a few years ago. In it, the top Vatican exorcist was saying that the devil lives in the Vatican now. The Vatican has a few different throne rooms. One is quite hideous and it's called the Throne of Lost Souls. Vatican insiders called it "the devil's throne". You can see photos of it online. I've also read that in the 60s there was a ceremony in the Vatican enthroning the devil. I've also watched a Youtube video of a Vatican cantor singing about Lucifer. I therefore urge any Catholics reading this article to come out of the Catholic Church and follow Yahueh and Yahushua!

Blessings

I pray that you will be open to what I've researched and written here and that you will learn the truth of the mighty Names of Yahueh and Yahushua.

There is a special blessing on those who fear Yahueh and those who meditate on Yahueh's Name.

Malaki aka Malachi 3:16 says

"Then shall those who fear YHWH speak to one another, and YHWH listen and hear, and a book of remembrance be written before Him, of those who fear YHWH, and those who think upon His Name."

Also, Shemoth aka Exodus 20:24 says

"In every place where I cause My Name to be remembered I shall come to you and bless you."

Yahueh is a Mighty One who wants to bless you!

Blessed be the Name of Yahueh! Blessed be the Name of Yahushua!

May the Spirit of Yahueh guide you into all truth! May Yahueh bless you!

Written by Mark D. Roberts
Wainui
New Zealand

Email: mark.roberts@maxnet.co.nz

Last updated on June 13, 2026.

This article is free and should not be sold by anyone.

Copyright © 2022 - 2026 Mark D. Roberts

with the following exclusions:

Scripture taken from The Scriptures, 1998 edition, Copyright by Institute for Scripture Research. Used by permission.

The ten graphics files, in PNG format, included in this article are not copyrighted to me. The four graphic files showing information from Strong's Concordance and Exhaustive Strong's Concordance are from openbible.com. The four graphics files showing Paleo Hebrew Names and scriptures are screenshots from The Hebrew Scriptures: Restored to the Original, Sinatic Alefbet by 𐤀𐤋𐤉 in conjunction with Bet HaShem Midrash. The two graphics files showing Masoretic texts are screenshots from Hebrew-English Tanakh: the Jewish Bible and are the copyright of Varda Books. The graphics files are used for non-profit, non-commercial, educational purposes and their use in this article comes under fair use legislation specified in Section 107 of Copyright Law of the United States contained in Title 17 of the United States Code.

I've copyrighted this article to prevent people from legally altering this article.

Readers are free to distribute this article to anyone, as long as the article is not altered in any way, including this copyright notice, and not sold.

-o-